

INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN DOCUMENTS ON CHILD AND YOUNG WORKERS AND MODERN FORMS OF CHILD SLAVERY

Kadriye Bakirci / Graham Ritchie

Breve descrizione

Child labour and violation of the rights of children and young person's is an increasing problem in all countries.

The purpose of this compendium of International and European documents on child and young workers, modern forms of child slavery (child prostitution, pornography, sale and trafficking), child ombudsperson and labour inspection is to provide in one source the International and European legal framework of the subject.

This collection constitutes an important tool for all those working in the field of children and young person's rights, and is a companion to Kadriye Bakirci's " The Protection of Rights of Child and Young Workers in International Regional and Turkish Law" published by Beta Publishing Company, Istanbul in 2004.

In the first, second, third and fourth chapters the documents are organised by reference to the adopting organisations and chronological order. In the fourth chapter the documents are referenced by subject matter.

Biografia dell'autore

Kadriye Bakirci is an Associate Professor of Employment and Social Security Law at Istanbul Technical University, Management Faculty, Law Division. Graham Ritchie is a Judge of the First Tier Tribunal (England & Wales)